I Jake's film review blog

Dog Cop 2: Hollywood Hero

On Saturday I saw Dog Cop 2: Hollywood Hero at the cinema. It's the second Dog Cop film, after the huge success of 2021's Dog Cop.

In this latest film, Skip is a police dog working in Hollywood. She likes her job but is sad because she hasn't got any friends in the city.

Skip and her human partner, Detective Frank Collins, are trying to find the person who stole an actress' diamond necklace. The actress' dog, Candy, saw the thief. Skip and Candy are very different but they must work together to catch the thief. Does Skip succeed? No spoilers – you'll have to watch the film to find out!

I enjoyed Dog Cop 2 even more than the first film. It's funny and has got some exciting scenes, like the chase over the Hollywood Sign. Everyone would enjoy it, but especially kids aged 5 to 12.
